Heritage Consulting

Professional Genealogical Research Services

In the business
since 1975

Heritage Consulting offers a variety of professional research services:

- A search to supplement your own efforts;
- A research project; or
- One-on-one guidance and direction for your research.

Research Projects

The research team at Heritage Consulting has extensive research experience in both library and field research. These seasoned professionals understand the histories, migrations, governments and record sources available. They are continually updated with new and fact-filled resources and understand the people of past generations. The entire team believes in providing quality research and helping YOU understand what has been found and the methodology used to make the discoveries.

Each research project includes:

- A footnoted report
- Pedigree charts & family group sheets
- Copies of supporting documents
- Bound with an attractive cover

10 hrs = $550 20 hrs = $1,050
30 hrs = $1,500 40 hrs = $2,050

Consultation

Thousands of people visit Salt Lake City

each year with the passion to trace their family history using the incredible resources of the Family History Library. This facility boasts the world's largest collection of genealogical records.

Heritage Consulting researchers work in this gathering of more than 6 million records every day and are familiar with what is where and how to fully utilize the records. Researchers stand ready to assist YOU for $55 per hour, to ensure that your visit, no matter how brief, will be a positive experience.

Some visitors want a brief analysis of their current findings and guidance on how to continue while others desire a side-by-side research partner throughout their time in the library. Whatever is needed, we will work hard to maximize your research findings and minimize your research frustrations.

Document Translation

When your research is stymied by a foreign language document, send a clear copy of the document and we will translate it for you in written or audiotape (less expensive) format.

Record Searches

Your own research efforts can be supplemented with single record searches in a variety of sources:

Military
Probates
Tax Lists
Church
Directories

Censuses
Court
Immigration
Vital Records
Land Deeds

Probate, Heirship and Adoption Research

Heritage Consulting is intensely involved in assisting attorneys and the courts in efforts to locate missing heirs for probate purposes, and in tracking down living relatives of missing persons or assisting in difficult adoption cases.

The immediately available, extensive collection of records ensures instant access and rapid response to probate and heirship inquiries.

Anne's Church, Blackfriars, London, and many other records associate the family with this section of London. His birth year can be estimated from his parents' marriage year of 1624 and from the fact that he was involved in trying to collect a legacy in 1646, at which time he would have reached 21 years of age. He was the first of two children born to Samuel¹ and Apphia (Quicke) Freeman, the only one born in England. (His brother, Samuel, was born in Watertown on 11 May 1638.)² The family had some connection with Malling in Kent, for in a letter recorded by Thomas Lechford, the early New England lawyer, Samuel Freeman identified himself as "now of Watertowne in New England and late of Mawlyn [sic] in the County of Kent."⁶ Henry may have spent a few of his early years there.⁷ In 1630 he emigrated from England with his parents to the Massachusetts

New England, 1620-1633. 3 vols. (Boston, 1995), 1:699 (hereafter cited as Anderson, Great Migration Begins).

² Watertown Records: Comprising the First and Second Books of Town Proceedings with the Land Grants and Possessions also the Proprietors' Book and the First Book and Supplement of Births Deaths and Marriages (Watertown, 1894), Vital Records, 5 (hereafter cited as Watertown Records, 1; there are three separately paginated sections, for Town, Land and Vital Records, and the citations will indicate the appropriate section—TR, LR or VR).

⁶ Edward Everett Hale Jr., ed., Note-Book Kept by Thomas Lechford, Esq., Lawyer in Boston, Massachusetts Bay, from June 27, 1638 to July 29, 1641, Archaeologia Americana: Transactions and Collections of the American Antiquarian Society, 7 (Cambridge, 1885):266-67.

⁷ No records help to explain why or when Samuel Freeman, whose father came from Stotfold, co. Bedford, before he lived in London, removed to Malling. It is difficult to imagine that in those days they would have moved to a small town in a different county unless there were relatives there. The parish records of the church of East Malling, Kent, the only parish extant in Malling in the 1600s, show that there were two or possibly three Freeman families living in Malling from 1606 to as late as 1632: those of Thomas (m. 16 Feb. 1616), William (m. 1613) and Nicholas (who may have been a son of either Thomas or William but whose baptism is not included in the parish register). The article "Ancestry of Samuel Freeman" reveals two uncles, of Samuel, Thomas Freeman and Nicholas Freeman, both living in Stotfold in 1587 and known to be alive in 1605 and 1630 respectively (TAG 11[1934-35]:176). This Nicholas had a son who was probably the Nicholas Freeman mentioned in the will of Samuel Freeman's mother. These given names, however, were all in common use, and no evidence is presently known that links the Freemans of Stotfold and London with those of Malling.

There are three possibilities for the period that Samuel Freeman lived in Malling. First, it is conceivable that the family may have lived in Malling early in Samuel's life. Although the baptisms of five of Samuel's siblings, only one of whom survived, are on record at St. Ann, Blackfriars, London, Samuel's baptismal record has not been found. All known records associate Samuel's father John and his wife Priscilla with London after their marriage in 1595, but there are no specific records between 1603 and John's burial in 1622. Second, Samuel and his wife Apphia could have lived in Malling during some period after their marriage and before their departure for New England in 1630, although Samuel was inducted into the Honourable Artillery Company in London in 1627. Third, as shown in "Ancestry of Samuel Freeman," Samuel returned to England in 1631 to attend to legal matters, leaving his wife and child in Watertown; he was imprisoned for a period and was released no later than 1635, yet he did not return to New England until the summer of 1637 (TAG 11[1934-35]:177-79). Since his statement about being formerly of Malling was made to Thomas Lechford about 1640, it is conceivable that he lived in Malling after his release from prison but before he returned to New England.

HENRY² FREEMAN, IMMIGRANT TO MASSACHUSETTS BAY IN 1630, AND HIS DESCENDANTS THROUGH THE END OF THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY

By Robert R. Freeman

Henry² Freeman (*Samuel*¹) has been mentioned among the early immigrants to New England since genealogists in the nineteenth century first began documenting the settlement of the colonists.¹ Nevertheless, the most readily available information about him and his descendants has been sparse, confusing, and pocked with errors. Frederick Freeman—whose 1875 publication, Freeman Genealogy,² is still the most comprehensive work on the New England Freemans—admitted that the record regarding Henry Freeman and his children was incomplete. Even the basic information he did present about this family line is seriously flawed, especially the statement that, with the death of Henry Freeman's grandson Samuel Freeman, in 1728, "the family [of Henry Freeman] became extinct."³ With the benefit of access to more detailed sources, such as court records, and to the published research of more recent genealogists, it can now be shown that this conclusion was based on incomplete evidence and that the descendants of Henry Freeman persisted at least until the end of the eighteenth century.

SECOND GENERATION

1 HENRY² FREEMAN (*Samuel*¹) was born in England about 1625.⁴ No birth or baptismal record has been found, but his parents were married in 1624 at St.

Gascoyne

THE GASCOYNE FAMILY AND ITS KINDRED.

By CHARLES E. KEMPER, Staunton, Va.

Thomas Gascoyne, as he wrote his name in his will, came to Virginia at an early date. Hotten in his List of Immigrants to Virginia gives 1619 as the year of his arrival and the name of the ship Bona Nova, in which he came, but he must have returned to England and later come back as the list of "Early Immigrants" to Virginia by Greer shows that "Thomas Gaskins" and his family arrived in Virginia in 1635, and settled first in Accomac County, Virginia. The name underwent a change at an early date in England, before 1612, and the few members of this family who still have the name in Virginia now call themselves Gaskins. The true rendering of the name is Gascoyne, and hereafter it will so be used in this sketch.

Thomas Gascoyne brought with him Elizabeth, Josias, Mary and Alice Gascoyne, and a cousin named John Gambling. He settled permanently in the neighborhood of Hewlett's Point, Northumberland County, Virginia, and died in 1665. He was born, according to his deposition, in 1601. Elizabeth Gascoyne named above, was probably his wife, but at his death his wife was Sarah, and two other children John and Henry Gascoyne are named in his will. Only his wife, Sarah, and John and Henry Gascoyne are named in the will. Of the descendants of the two last named, the writer has no definite information. The Gascoyne family persisted in Lancaster County, Virginia, certainly until 1834, and the family is now, 1929, represented in Fauquier County by Mr. Frank Gaskins. The Gaskins of Lancaster and Northumberland Counties descend from one or more of the brothers, John and Henry Gascoyne, sons of Thomas Gascoyne, the immigrant.

Josias Gascoyne, son of the immigrant, married Martha Pinkard, of Lancaster County, Virginia, and his descendants are given with some fulness in Volume 11, William and Mary Quarterly, pp. 276,* and following. However, that article treats of the descendants of Josias Gascoyne only, and the purpose of this paper is to tell something of the daughters of Thomas Gascoyne, the immigrant.

Mary Gascoyne married Lt. Col. Henry Mayes of Northumberland County, Virginia, a prominent citizen of that county prior to 1700; descendants unknown to the writer. Alice Gascoyne, the second daughter of Thomas Gascoyne, married, about 1650, James Taylor of Northumberland County, Virginia, and their children are given in the sketch of the Taylors embodied in this paper. About June or July 1769, Richard Henry Lee, the Orator of the Revolution, as he is called, and mover of the Declaration of Independence, and prominent throughout the Revolution, married, as his second wife, Mrs. Anna Gascoyne Pinkard, widow of Thomas Pinkard, and daughter of Col. Thomas Gascoyne of Westmoreland County, Virginia, and a sister of Lt. Col. Thomas Gascoyne, who commanded the Virginia Continentals at the siege of Yorktown in 1781. By this marriage Richard Henry Lee and his wife had the following children: Anne Lee married her cousin, Charles Lee (issue); Henrietta married (1) Richard Lee Turbillé (issue); (2) Rev. William Maffit (issue); Sarah married Edmund Jennings Lee (issue); Cassius, died while a student at Princeton; and Francis Lightfoot Lee.

The Encyclopedias state that the Gascoynes are a Noble Norman family, early seated in Yorkshire, England. The head of the family was Sir William Gascoyne, Lord Chief Justice of England under Henry the Fourth, who was born at Gaythorpe, Yorkshire in 1350 and died in 1415.

The "Visitation Book" of 1624 shows three branches of the family in Yorkshire; all of them had Coats of Arms, each varying, but all had the same Crest, which shows that they really constituted but one family.

In 1624, Thomas Gascoyne was the head of the family in Hull, England, and since it was Thomas Gascoyne who came to Virginia and because the Christian name, Thomas, came down in the Virginia family, it seems the Virginia Gascoynes belong to the Hull branch.

*"Gaskins Family," in Genealogies of Virginia Families: From the William and Mary College Quarterly Historical Magazine (Baltimore: Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc.), Vol. II, pp. 401-406.

The family had been of note in more ways than one in the life of the British Nation. George Gascoyne, son of Sir John Gascoyne, was probably the most noted of the English poets in the time of Queen Elizabeth. William Gascoyne of Yorkshire invented, before he was twenty years of age, a micrometer, one of the most useful of devices used in connection with the telescope. He fell in battle at Marston Moor in 1644, at the early age of twenty-four, one of the most talented men of his day in England.

Authorities, The Visitation Books of 1624, Yorkshire; The British Encyclopedia and Chambers' Encyclopedia for the Gascoynes in England. The Virginia Land records, Greer's List of Early Immigrants to Virginia for Thomas Gascoyne and his family, and "Lee of Virginia" for the marriage of Richard Henry Lee to Anna Gascoyne Pinkard.

The Taylors.

John Taylor¹ was the head of this family. He came to Virginia in 1648 and first settled in Northampton County, Virginia. He was an active business man for those days, and in 1648, he and James Jones paid for the transportation of ten people into Virginia. John Taylor's residence in Northampton seemed to have ceased in 1652. Commencing in that year he commenced to patent land in Lancaster County, Virginia, on the borders of Corotoman and Wicomico Creeks. The year of his settlement in Lancaster is not entirely clear. In the history of Christ Church Parish in Lancaster County, Virginia, in "Colonial Churches of Virginia" it appears that John Taylor was named as an officer in that church in 1652, and in the sketch of Wicomico Church Parish in the same work, he appears as a vestryman in that Parish in 1654-57.

There was another John Taylor who died in Lancaster County, Virginia, in 1652, and possibly he may have been the church officer of that year, but the weight of evidence is that John Taylor¹ who did not die until 1702 was the church officer in the Parish named above in 1652.

He married Alice Gascoyne, daughter of Thomas Gascoyne about 1649-50 and had the following children: John Taylor² married Ann Vesey, Thomas Taylor married Elizabeth Therriatt, Lazarua Taylor married Mary Vesey, a daughter who married Edmund Basye; Mary Taylor who married George (?) Everett.

John² Taylor and Ann Vesey Taylor, his wife, had the following children: First John³ Taylor who married Mary Bumbury, second, Moses Taylor ———, Third, James Taylor, married Dorcas Waters, and settled in old Prince William County in 1742, and then removed prior to 1763 to South Carolina. Benjamin³ Taylor, who married Elizabeth ——— also removed to old Prince William in 1742, settling about three miles north of Warrenton near Bethel Church. The order of births of the children is not known positively to the writer and, therefore, is not positively stated.

Benjamin³ Taylor and Elizabeth ——— Taylor, his wife, had the following children: First, Joseph Taylor, who first married Elizabeth Fishback, and second apparently a Miss Gascoyne. Richard Taylor married Judith ———; Winifred Taylor married Edmund Basye, Hannah Taylor married John Basye. Mary married Joseph Hudnall. Elizabeth Taylor, was born in 1735, died in 1829, married first James Morgan, second, Henry Mauzy. Frances Taylor, married James Bashaw. All the persons named above lived in the present Fauquier County. Elizabeth Morgan, daughter of James Morgan and Elizabeth Taylor Morgan, born in 1759, died in 1860 and married John Kemper.

The Vesey Family.

Nothing concerning this interesting family has ever been written or published to any considerable extent, except a number of valuable historical notes relating to the family published in the Virginia Magazine of History and Biography by Mrs. L. C. Anderson, of Bainbridge, Ohio, during the past few years.

The Vesey Pedigree in England from the "Visitation Books" 1612, Suffolk, England, is as follows:

Thomas Vesey, of Aldham, married Elizabeth, daughter of ——— Gardiner of Suffolk, and had issue.

Thomas, son and heir; Alice married to Henry Gonville, of Garleston, in Suffolk.

Thomas Vesey married Elizabeth Church, daughter of John Church, of Malden, in Essex, and had issue.

Thomas, son and heir; Edward second son; Mary married to Thomas Atherold, of Burgh, in Suffolk.

Thomas Vesey married Ann Vere, daughter of John Vere of Henley, in Suffolk, and had issue; Thomas Vesey, son and heir age one, Ann age 10, Mary age nine, Elizabeth, age seven.

George Vesey who came to Virginia as stated in this article seems to have been the son of Edward Vesey, the second son of Thomas Vesey and Elizabeth Church, his wife, but this is not entirely certain.

George Vesey settled in Lancaster County, Virginia, on Moratico Creek, in conjunction with a business partner named Nathaniel Brown. He bought his first land on the Creek mentioned. The records of Lancaster County, Virginia, seem to indicate that he and Mr. Brown were

II

San George Reede's 2-Great Grandfather George Talboys was Lord of Kymer in Yorkshire, living in the early 1500's.
The English line is descended from Renfred of Taillebois in Normandy ca 1050AD & was evidently "come with (wif) the Conqueror".
The name is spelt many ways - Talboys being common.

Since we know he was Lord of Kymer it should not be very hard to connect him as son or grandson of Sir Robert Talboys of Kymer (1451-1495)

(Try Victoria History of Yorkshire for late Passage if available, or Devil's Visitations or Butler or other passages)

DEATH NOTICES

Several contributors to the historical topics discussed in these pages died recently.

ROBERT J. DODGE, 74, wrote several Lake Erie related works including the study of the Battle of Lake Erie.

FRANK KLEMENT, 85, Professor at Marquette University, was the acknowledged expert on Civil War Copperheadism, disloyalty in the northern states.

HAROLD MAYER, 78, was a UW-M geographer who wrote on transportation dealing with both land and water. He also wrote a column for Soundings, our Wisconsin Marine Historical Society quarterly R929.2

searched are defective and do not contain the entries which one might reasonably hope to find in them.

The proper procedure, therefore, after selecting a genealogist with care, is to ask for an estimate of the cost of the desired search, and then either to accept or reject the estimate. If accepted, the account should be paid regardless of the results. The report of the genealogist should of course explain the conditions encountered, in the event of failure, and copies of any records that might have a bearing on the problem.

INDEX OF THE VOSBURGH COLLECTION OF EARLY CHURCH RECORDS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

As presented to the Wisconsin State Historical Society Library by the Wisconsin State Genealogical Society, 1959. This index was made by Mrs. Harold Reyer, Wauwatosa, WI; copied by Mrs. Frances Schuetze, Madison, WI.

(The Vosburgh Collection, on microfilm, is located at the Periodical Desk on the second floor of the Milwaukee Central Library. It was purchased by M.C.G.S. as a memorial to Frances Grundmann, a devoted member and officer of M.C.G.S.)

Readers are urged to consult the introductions and histories at the beginning of each set of records in order to understand the various names and designations applied to these churches at different periods. Also a church record may include other towns nearby not designated by the given name of the church listed.

CONNECTICUT

✓ Windham, County, CT, County Court Records, 1732-1736: Abstracts of Volume 2, Connecticut State Library Archives, Capitol Avenue, Hartford, CT - Marcella Houle Pasay. Looking for lost ancestors in Windham County, CT? Puzzled because land records seem to be missing? Could be they're noted in one of the over 1600 lawsuits, petitions, and appointments abstracted from these early court records.

This work offers glimpses of never before published ledgers from a rather obscure source - an excellent resource for the pre-census era. Names of thousands of early Windham County residents are noted along with litigants from other Connecticut counties, neighboring states, and from as far away as London, England. The residences of plaintiffs, defendants and petitioners are noted along with their occupations (if known) and even familial relationships in some instances. Cases include complaints of debts, issuing of tavern and tanning licenses, property attachments, thefts, trespassing, assault, fornication, and highway petitions, just to name a few.

The index includes every person's name, including witnesses and court officials, every location mentioned, types of suits, occupations, and other noteworthy subjects. This is an excellent resource tool for those who are unable to visit the archives, and a shortcut to poring over old, under-indexed volumes with faded script. 2002, 230 pp., fullname + subject index, paper, $22.50 #P2241

Pre-Publication price until December 31, 2002: $18.00

The Windham County, CT, County Court Records, 1726-1732: Abstracts of Vol. 1, CT State Library Archives, Capitol Avenue, Hartford, CT - Marcella Houle Pasay. Looking for a lost ancestor in Windham County, CT? They may be noted in one of the over 1800 lawsuits, petitions, and appointments abstracted from these early court records.

This work offers abstracts of never before published court records from a rather obscure source - an excellent resource for the pre-census era. All the towns of early Windham County are represented, plus towns in neighboring counties and states (MA, RI & NY). 2000, 184 pp., full name + location index, paper, $36.00 #P1683

Family Secrets: 18th and 19th Century Birth Records Found in the Windham County, CT, County Court Records and Files at the Connecticut State Library Archives, Hartford.

- Marcella Pasay. A hint of scandal or embarrassment associated with a birth may have made an ancestor reluctant to document it in a public record. This work is a compilation of Fornication and Maintenance of (Illegitimate) Child suits brought to the Windham County Court from 1728 to 1847. There are over 300 cases, each representing a birth most likely not recorded in the vital records. 2000, 101 pp., full name + location index, paper, $15.50 #P1538

Missouri Genealogical Gleanings 1840 and Beyond- Sherida K. Eddlemon.

The purpose of this collection is to help the researcher pinpoint his or her ancestors between the census years. The author takes her information from church records, deaths records, inquests, cemetery lists, tax lists, poll lists, voter lists, licenses, wills, warranty deeds, original land entries, and estate settlements. All volumes are indexed and paperbound.

Finding and Obtaining Materials

Use the floor plans posted near the entrance to each stack area to locate a specific section. Floor plans can also be found in the online stack guide at:

<http://www.library.wisc.edu/libraries/Memorial/staxi.htm>

If the item is not on the shelf:

1. Look for it in the shelving room on that floor near the elevator lobby.
2. Ask circulation desk staff (1st floor) for assistance or to place a search.

If MadCat indicates that the item is checked out:

1. Recall it using MadCat ("Place Requests" button) or ask circulation desk staff to do so for you. You will be notified by mail when the item is available for your use.
2. If the item you need is not available in campus libraries or is charged out, you may want to obtain it using interlibrary loan: <http://www.library.wisc.edu/services/ill.htm>

Staff at the Circulation Desk, Information Desk and Reference Desk can assist you with directions in the building.
